

DEPARTMENT OF GOVERNMENT
INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS (36 credits)
Freshman and Transfers, Fall 2007
Students in Track D must earn the B.A.

Core Requirements:

Government 110	Introduction to American Democracy	_____ (4)
Government 120	Research Methodology	_____ (4)

Total Core Credits (8)

Track Requirements:

Government 261	Theory & Practice of International Relations	_____ (4)
Government 281	Introduction to Comparative Politics	_____ (4)
Government 310	Global Political Economy	_____ (4)

AND one of the following: _____ (4)

Government 308	International Security
Government 363	American Foreign Policy
Government 463	International Law & Organization

Total Track Credits (16)

Track Electives: _____ (4) _____ (4) _____ (4)

At least one from group A. Country Area Studies and group B. Issues.

*Keep in mind these lists are in constant flux and not all courses may appear on the list***

A. Country / Area Studies

Gov. 283, 311, 313, 317, 318, 367, 383, 385, 387, 389, 391, 393, 395, 397, 408, 410, 419, 481, 482, 483, 485, 486, 487, 488, 490, 507 and any course offered by the department with a focus on the politics of a particular nation or region.

B. Issues

Gov. 203, 205, 307, 322, 384, 399, 418, 420, 421, 425, 438, 439, 461, 462, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 477, 484, 489, 507, 509, 526/528/529 (6 cr. to major) and any course offered by the department with a focus on international relations

Total Track Credits (12)

Complementary Major Requirements: (8 credits)

Economics (preferably Macro)	_____ (4)
History (any non-US)	_____ (4)

(These courses may be double counted as other degree requirements)

Foreign Language: It is required that students in this track have experience in a second language. For some students, this second language might be English. For native English speakers, the choice of a second language will depend on individual background and preference, but should be discussed with the student's advisor.